Change of Address: Change of Address Procedures

Changing your address is easy. Just keep the following in mind:

- You can only use Texas Online to change the address where your Registration Renewal Notice is mailed.
- You cannot use Texas Online to change the address of the vehicle owner (the address shown on your title) or the address of the vehicle location. To change either of these addresses, click here to download an Address Change Form.
- When changing an address online, be ready to provide the vehicle's license plate number and last four digits of the Vehicle Identification

Number (VIN). You can find this information on (1) your insurance card, (2) your Registration Renewal Notice, if you received one, or (3) last year's registration sticker receipt.*

- Address changes take effect within two (2) business days.
- If you have questions, contact one of our regional offices. You can find the numbers and addresses by clicking here.

 Please Note: Registration Renewal Notices are mailed out 90 days in advance of the date your registration expires. If you change your address during this time period, please call (512) 465-7611.
